Abstract of the Talk

All technology breakthroughs start with a spark- but only a few make it to the world. In this session, we will explore the journey of taking technology from lab/research to marketplace, creating impact in the real world. This is not just for building startups but for leading breakthrough projects, understanding the real problems and a structured approach for bringing ideas to life.

All are welcome:

Please circulate this to all your interested colleagues, associates and friends. Please register in large numbers and derive maximum benefit. Advance registration is mandatory for participation. Participants will also get Participation Certificate.
